Welcome to Tempranillo Restaurant, where internationally acclaimed chef, Javier Gonzalez-Bringas, along with his partner and wife, Laura, offer a daily menu of drinks, tapas, dinner, and lunch. Gonzalez-Bringas, a Madrid native, combines an old-world style with a new world flair in his signature cuisine. The name Tempranillo, itself, pays homage to one of Spain's premier grape varieties, and true to its name, the restaurant features a selection of over 100 hand-chosen wines as well as its Tempranillo's own hearty blend of fruit-filled Sangria.
